Gloria in Excelsis Deo

Luke 2:1–20

Sermon Study Notes

I. All of creation converges on a single town.

II. All of history converges on a single day.

III. All God's revelation converges in a single announcement.

IV. All God's immensity converges in a single room.

V. All God's splendor converges in a single song.

VI. All of time converges in a single moment.

VII. All of mankind converges in a single birth.

VIII. All the angels converge on a shepherd's field.

IX. All salvation hinges on an active faith.

The Messiah came to right everything that was wrong, and the most wrong thing in the world is your heart.
Your heart must believe.
Your destiny awaits.
